

THE LONGER YOU LIVE

THE MORE YOU FIND OUT.

We have lived long enough and have been in the Dry Goods business long enough to have found out that

THE MORE GOODS WE HAVE THE MORE GOODS WE SELL.

That is the reason we have laid in this year a BIGGER STOCK of EVERYTHING than ever before. We have MORE DRY GOODS, MORE CLOAKS, MORE CLOTHING, MORE BOOTS and SHOES, MORE NOTIONS, than we ever had. Our customers therefore have a larger assortment to select from, and may be more certain than ever of being suited.

Remember that our prices are on A CASH BASIS, which means that our profits are just as small as is consistent with safe business.

Come and examine our stock before doing your winter trading, and you will not regret it.

What has become of the town of Cherokee for which a whole lot of lot certificates were sold a year or two ago by a Garnett company? It was to be the biggest town in the Strip, but we haven't heard a peep from it yet. N. B. Anybody who wants two shares of it can get them cheap by applying at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Yeager have the sincere sympathy of all their friends in the death of their daughter, Lulu May Belle, which occurred last Saturday. The deceased was born Sept. 17, 1883, and was therefore 19 years and 6 days old at the time of her death. She was taken ill about four weeks ago with typhoid fever, which ran into typhoid pneumonia and resulted fatally in spite of all that medical skill and tender nursing could do. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Wm Hanks on Sunday and were largely attended.

"State vs John Doe alias Jim Vermillion, alias Jim Bixley, real name unknown," was the title of a case that occupied most of Monday night in Justice Potter's court. The man with many aliases was charged with having disturbed the peace of S. P. Eyer, at Humboldt, July 29, 1892, and although justice was deferred till the imposition of a fine of $1 and costs, amounting altogether amounting to $5.75. All cases heard by H. A. Eyer, prosecuted, C. S. Ritter, defended.

One of the conspicuous figures at the World's Fair is our old friend, Diamond Dick, who has an "American Indian Village" on the Midway Plaisance.

The following from Sunday's Inter-Ocean would seem to indicate that he has got into trouble:

"Diamond Dick," or Dr. George R. McMillan, the Indian Village, on the Midway Plaisance to the World's Fair, has been in a terrible predicament. For some weeks "Diamond Dick" in conjunction with "Bookskin Jones" has been running a village of American Indians on the Midway Plaisance. They have been giving imitations of war, corn and ghost dances, in which black and red men are kept to order. Last night Diamond Dick left his show and visited the Hungarian restaurant. There he got into a discussion which degenerated into a knock-down and drag-out melee, in which he was set upon by a dozen waiters and given a terrible and serious mauling. He was knocked down with a chair, and every waiter in the cafe took a whack at him as he lay motionless on the floor, his long Auburn hair being matted with blood about his face. Rescued by some bystanders, the unconscious man was taken to the Hungarian restaurant and there patched up. He had a severe scalp wound, four stitches were required to get his hair in place and being the lips of the man together. Judge W. J. Vanghan, formerly mayor of Council Bluffs, and John Hartley, interested themselves in Dick's behalf and had him conveyed to Mercy hospital.

Cantons from 4 to 12 e a yard at Northrup's.

P. J. Talbot went down to the Strip with H. L. Reagan, the Conleys, Sam Baker, E. P. Miner, Wm. Pike, Jas. Overmyer, Middle Geo. Johnson. He got back Sunday morning and brings rather a discouraging report. He says the crowd all went to Ponca, where each of them bought a lot at $2 apiece. He doubts whether the lots obtained will ever be worth more than their purchase price. Baker is running a hack from Ponca to Cross, the railroad station. Conley is draying. The others are doing odd jobs. Talbot himself stood in line from Wednesday morning till Thursday night to get his certificate, but he didn't get to get a claim. He says he wouldn't go through the same experience again for the best claim in the Strip. Like everybody else who knows anything about it, he condemns most unsparingly the bungling way in which the opening was managed.

A very pretty line of stamped linens at Northrup's.

October 23rd is the 25th anniversary of the founding of the A. O. U. W., and District Supervisor, J. E. Henderson, has this week sent out letters to each of the fourteen lodges in this District, announcing that the anniversary would be celebrated here under the auspices of Iola Lodge No. 98, and cordially inviting all members of the order to attend. Grand Master Murphy, Grand Recorder Forde, and Past Grand Master Kiddle have promised to be present. The secret work will be exemplified to members of the order during the afternoon, and in the evening an open meeting will be held at which addresses will be given by the distinguished visitors. The occasion will no doubt be a happy one, and every member of the order in Allen county should make it a point to be present.

A good standard print for 5c yd. at Northrup's.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says, "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Evans Bros.

Good flour only 65 cents at Brigham & Munger's.

We wish to call particular attention to Prof. Picken's notice of the University Lecture Course which is to be given in Iola this winter. The importance of this course, from an educational standpoint, can hardly be overestimated. It means that those who join the class shall have the University brought to them, practically, and shall receive University instruction without leaving their homes. We hope that not only those who have subscribed to the course, but all others who are at all interested in educational work, will attend the meeting at the school house next Tuesday evening.

Don't fail to get some of that Giant cloth at a price, at Northrup's.

Mr. E. F. Davis, of Pitkin, Colorado, was down last week visiting his father, G. W. Stephens, at Hugh Lambeth. Willoughby and himself were the only Moran men who got anything on the Strip. They all got claims on adjoining sections and seem well pleased.

Mr. Dibble visited the canning factory at Garnett last week and says it is a big thing. It is now putting up from 1000 to 1500 bushels of tomatoes daily, and employs nearly 200 hands, paying out for vegetables and labor from $700 to $750 a day. This is the kind of an institution Iola ought to have.

Yates Center Democrat: As predicted by the Democrat last week the corn who stole Mrs. Samuels' jewelry and pawned her watch at Parsons, was caught in a very short time. He was found down in the Indian Territory and was brought to this city last Saturday. He is now in jail at Iola, awaiting his trial.

A. B. Mull has acted on the suggestion of the Register and named his fine farm, out on Rock Creek. Hereafter it will be known as "Oakland Farm," a very pretty name. By the way Mr. Mull gathered in more blue ribbons probably at our Fair than any other one man. He had 48 entries and "swiped" nearly $40 in cash premiums.

The burden of the Iola Fair made C. L. Whitaker, the secretary, stoop shouldered. But we guess he will straighten up in time to pick up the load again next year. He has done the work well and deserves a second term. We rather expect, though that if anybody else wants the job next year, Col. will be willing and glad to give it to him.

A jury in Justice Potter's court awarded a judgment of $84.30 Tuesday to Adolph Minzer and against L. A. Mathews. The suit was brought for the sum of $102.80, on a promissory note, but the defense set up the plea that the interest charged was usurious, and the jury seemed to take that view of it. Campbell & Hanks for plaintiff, and Ewing & Bennett for the defense.

D. W. Youngs, one of the Osage stalwarts, called on the Register Tuesday. "I never vote for any body on the opposition ticket," he said, "for even the election of a constable strengthens their party just that much. And then if one of their men is elected by Republican votes, they come around and crow over us and talk about how they beat us. The Republican ticket is good enough for me."

Don't buy a cook stove anywhere in Allen county without first coming to see us. We have more on hand than we have room for, and in order to get floor space for the heating stoves we will sell the cookers at very low prices for the next two months. No competition. Call on H. A. Eyer, or come and see. ing prosecuted, C. S. Ritter, defended.

Grandpa Acers, Mrs. N. F. Acers and Miss Grace have returned from their summer sojourn in the East. Their friends are glad to have them back.

Beck has shipped two or three car loads of broom corn this week. The price is very low, $30 to $50, and few farmers are willing to sell at that price.

S. S. White and Mr. Maule got back from the Strip Tuesday. They haven't a bit of use for the new country. They didn't even try to take a claim.

The B. Y. P. U. will treat the "Chinese in America" a their missionary meeting to be held Friday evening at the Baptist church. All are invited to attend.

F. A. and D. P. Northrup have returned from Chicago where they purchased their fall and winter goods, in addition to seeing the fair.

There are from five to twenty covered wagons on our streets every day, backing out of the Strip. Of course every wagon is packed full of disappointment and disgust.

Wm Benn came up from Blackwell the first of the week and returned yesterday. He has been right lucky buying and selling lots, and has made some money.

W. H. Ling is one of the few Strippers who came back with more than he took in. He is five pounds heavier than when he started. He thinks, though, it is mostly sand.

Owing to the rain last Sunday the Geneva township Sunday school convention is postponed till Oct. 8. It will then be held according to the program published last week.

If any of your friends went to the Strip and failed to get a claim, write to them to come to Allen county. Land is cheaper here today, all things considered, than it is in the Strip.

John H. Vannoy returned Monday from his trip to Chicago and to the National Encampment. He had a fine time, of course, and looks five years younger than when he went away.

Rev. J. H. Lockwood, D. D., Dist. Superintendent of the American Bible society will deliver an address at the union meeting this evening at 7:30 in the M. E. church. All are invited.

Mr. Wm Paske and his family, of Elm, started Tuesday on a visit to their old home in England. Their friends will hope that the long journey may be safely and pleasantly made.

Col. W. C. Jones is home again from Washington. He continues confident that he will get his old job when the time comes, in spite of the world, the flesh and—Senator Martin. Here's hoping!

That was a glorious rain Saturday night and Sunday. It started counting plover and wheat drills going, flooded up the streams and ponds and renewed the pastures. It was worth thousands.

Rev. and Mrs. King, Mr. and Mrs. D. Robinson, Mrs. E. J. Thayer, Miss Allie Moore, A. L. Dibble and Orville Williams attended the session of the Mound City Baptist Association at Garnett last week.

The Register has printed and has now for sale the monthly report cards used for many years in the district schools of the county. They are printed on fine white cardboard and may be had for a cent apiece.

There would be a good deal more sense in a rush to Allen county than there was in a rush to the Strip. We have room for 10,000 more people to make homes, better homes and cheaper ones than anybody will find in the Strip.

If you are somewhat under the weather and not sick enough to go to bed, it is a very considerable saving to be able to get the advice of a competent physician and a prescription free. This you can do at Campbell's drug store.

F. E. A. Smith, of Topeka, State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. was in town last Monday visiting his friend, Frank Traviss, and advertising the next State convention of the Association which will be held in Ft. Scott October 19-22.

Rev. J. H. M. Hart, H. H. Jones and Miss Adda Shank are attending the District Conference of the M. E. Church at Olathe this week. Mr. Hart read a paper Wednesday on "The mutual relation of the church and the Sunday School."

Frank Stephenson, of Moran, writes from Kirk O. T. that his father, G. W. Stephenson, that Hugh Lambeth, Willoughby and himself were the only Moran men who got anything on the Strip. They all got claims on adjoining sections and seem well pleased.

DRY GOODS

AT UNHEARD OF PRICES.

Reasons why you should buy of us: Jobbing houses seriously overestimated their trade possibilities for the World's Fair season. The result, they have been very anxious to turn stock into money. We have taken advantage and are now able to sell them at correspondingly low prices.

These Excellent Purchases

Are marked at our usual small percentage of profit. In short we guarantee you
